

WELCOME, NEW DEN LEADER!

Here Are Your Secrets to Success:

Welcome to Cub Scouting!

First impressions are important and Cub Scouting is no different. Boys join Cub Scouts for excitement, to be with friends, and to have fun. If your first few meetings are fun, for you and for the Cub Scouts, they will come back for more ... and future meetings will be easier and easier for you.

The first thing you should know is that you are not alone. Hundreds of thousands of adults have preceded you in Cub Scouting. Their experience and wisdom are available to you through a number of resources that will be discussed in the following pages. You won't have to reinvent the wheel as you plan, prepare for, and conduct meetings.

Family Participation

Tiger Cub Handbook, No. 34713
Wolf Handbook, No. 33450

Bear Handbook, No. 33451
Webelos Handbook, No. 33452

Scouting is designed to provide opportunities for families to work and play together, to have fun together, and to get to know each other a little better. Parents are an integral part of the Scouting experience.

Securing the assistance of den families is important from the start. Read through the Parent Guide contained in your youth handbook. All parents need to understand that they are the primary leaders in Cub Scouting. Tiger Cub, Wolf, and Bear parents are expected to work on the activities in the handbooks with their son. As the den leader, you need to do your part by communicating with the parents and sharing information on all activities so that they can make plans in a timely fashion to participate with their son and be a part of his Cub Scouting experience.

Advancement

Read the youth handbook appropriate for your den program to learn about the advancement requirements for your den's grade level. Remember that in Tiger Cubs through Bear Cub Scout, helping the boy advance is primarily the responsibility of the parent. You will support their efforts by providing fun and exciting learning activities at the weekly den meeting. Den meetings of Webelos Scouts center on working on projects that contribute to earning a Webelos activity badge.

Your First Month—Three Steps to Success: Step 1

Step 1. Establish the Basics

Complete a roster of the boys in your new den, including name, phone number, address, primary parent/guardian, and e-mail address, if available. Be mindful of different family situations and gather primary and secondary contact information for parents if necessary. Your Cubmaster should provide you with your Cub Scout pack and den number.

Determine the day, time, and location of your weekly den meetings. Den meetings should occur consistently on the same day, same time, and same location of each week every month. Your den may meet at a parent's home, school, church, or community organization building. A discussion with the parents in your den will help you determine the best day, time and place for your den meetings. Once determined, let everyone know when and where your meetings will be. Holding den meetings at the same time and place each week is encouraged; that will help keep attendance strong.

Find out the location, date, and time of your monthly pack meeting. The pack meeting is a monthly gathering of all Cub Scouts and their families, led by the Cubmaster. The pack meeting consists of activities and recognition based on the month's theme. Let all your den members, leaders, and parents know when and where pack meetings will be.

Ask for your Cubmaster's name, phone number, and e-mail address. The Cubmaster is the leader of your pack. This person is in charge of planning and conducting the monthly pack meetings. The Cubmaster helps plan and carry out the pack program.

Find out the location, date, and time of your monthly pack leaders' meeting. The pack leaders' meeting is held to help you and the Cubmaster and plan den and pack meetings based on a monthly theme.

Identify and recruit an assistant den leader(s). Having an assistant will help the meetings run smoother and the assistant can fill in if you have to miss a meeting. Have the recruited assistant fill out an adult leader application and give it to your Cubmaster so that she or he can secure the necessary approval.

Study the Fast Start CD. View the Fast Start CD as soon as possible. Or you may complete this training on your local council's Web site. After viewing the Cub Scout Leader Fast Start CD, you'll want to attend the New Leader Essentials and Cub Scout Leader Specific Training courses as soon as possible. Ask your pack trainer for information on these.

Your First Month—Three Steps to Success: Step 2

Step 2. Prepare for Your First Den Meeting

In step 1 you determined when and where your den meetings will be. The den meetings are planned around a monthly theme set by your pack.

Meetings consist of activities, projects, and business items.

In step 1 you began your den leader training when you reviewed the Cub Scout Leader Fast Start CD included in this packet, or completed the training on your council's Web site. That training showed you how to plan for and conduct a den meeting for your age group. Now it's time to plan your first den meeting program. Use the resource that best fits the makeup of your den: If you have all new boys in your den, refer to the item in this kit titled, "Program Ideas for your First Month's Den Meetings, Theme: Bobcats All" and then, after the first month, use the monthly Cub Scout Program Helps segments in the kit. If the boys in your den (all or mostly) have already earned their Bobcat badge, use the September through November Cub Scout Program Helps segments included in this kit.

These program helps are designed to take the guesswork out of your first meeting. They are your roadmap to success! By following the week-by-week instructions, you will have a fun and exciting first month. Be sure to share the responsibilities (and the fun) of den leadership with your assistant leader(s).

Cub Scout Program Helps, No. 34304, is a book that is produced annually to provide a whole year of support for you when planning your meetings. You may purchase a copy of this annual resource from your local council service center or Scout shop.

As you will see in Program Helps, the basic structure of any den meeting includes:

- Gathering activity—to keep boys occupied until everyone arrives.
- Opening ceremony—such as reciting the Pledge of Allegiance or Cub Scout Promise—to officially kick off the meeting.
- Activities—Learning a skill, playing a game, practicing a skit, and/or doing craftwork. Some of these activities can contribute to the way your den will participate in the monthly pack meeting.
- Closing ceremony—to calm and inspire the boys before they leave.

One den meeting a month should be a field trip, outdoor activity, or service project.

Gather the support items needed for your den meeting. These might include props for skits, craft materials, snacks, or supplies for games or outdoor activities.

Confirm the den meeting location. Be sure all arrangements have been made and confirmed, especially if your meeting is being held at a school, church, community organization building, or an outdoor location.

Set a date and a time for a den parents' meeting. This may be in conjunction with your first den meeting. You will want to be sure that parents understand that they are the primary leaders in the Cub Scouting program and that the den and the pack exist to support their relationship with their son. See the "New Parent Information Guide."

Contact each boy and parent to confirm the den meeting date, time, and location. Be sure each boy knows when and where the first den meeting will be and confirm his attendance. This will allow you to get to know the boys in your den.

You and your assistant(s) should purchase your uniforms before the first meeting, if possible. Wearing the uniform properly helps to set a good example for the boys. Encourage your boys to wear their uniforms to the first meeting.

The key to successful planning is KISMIF—Keep it Simple, Make it Fun!

Essential Literature

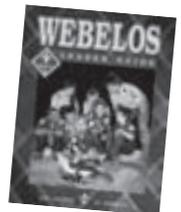

Cub Scout Program Helps,

No. 34304, contains a full year of weekly den meeting plans for Tiger Cub, Wolf, and Bear dens based on a monthly theme. Detailed instructions are included for recommended crafts and games. You will also find ceremonies, skits, and songs for the monthly pack meeting and activities that help boys advance in rank and progress in the Cub Scout Academics and Sports program.

Webelos Leader Guide, No. 33853, includes information a Webelos leader needs for meeting preparation. The guide includes monthly den meeting plans for all 20 Webelos activity badges.

Cub Scout Leader Book, No. 33221, is your handbook, just as boys have handbooks in Cub Scouting. The Cub Scout Leader Book contains the basic information needed to operate and support Cub Scouting, such as information on Boy Scouts of America policies, leadership duties, program planning, and youth protection guidelines. The time you take now to look through it will pay off in the future.

As your den program matures, you will find other literature to help you, such as Cub Scout Academics and Sports Program Guide, No. 34299.

Most councils have a Scout shop with all the materials you will need. Contact your local council service center for locations.

Essential Training

All leaders need training! These training courses should be completed as soon as possible to help ensure that you have a successful den program. Call your district training chairman for dates.

- Fast Start Training. This should be the first training completed by all leaders.
- New Leader Essentials. The first piece of basic training, this session presents an overview of Scouting's principles, policies, and programs to leaders in all program areas.
- Cub Scout Leader Specific Training. The second part of basic training, this session gives you the nuts and bolts of what you need to know specific to your leadership position in Cub Scouting.
- Youth Protection Training. This training session increases awareness of child abuse and how BSA works to protect its youth from these dangers. It must be taken by all leaders.

Special Events

Your pack, district, and council will sponsor special events throughout the year in which your den may participate. You will receive information on these events at pack planning meetings and at the monthly Cub Scout roundtable meeting. Some of these events may be:

Pinewood Derby. Boys, with the assistance of their family, build and race gravity-powered cars down a track.

Blue and Gold Banquet. Held in February, this is the annual birthday party for Cub Scouting.

Conservation and Service Projects. An important part of Cub Scouting is helping others.

Cub Scout Day Camp. Held during the summer, this is a week-long, daytime outdoor experience for Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouts, and Webelos Scouts.

Cub Scout/Webelos Scout Resident Camp. Held during the summer, this is a multi-day overnight camping experience for Cub Scouts, Webelos Scouts, and their parents.

Pack Overnights. Overnight family camping experiences.
