

Every Tiger den MUST have a Tiger Cub Den Leader.

Qualifications: If residing in this country but not a citizen of the United States, agrees to abide by the Scout Oath and Law, to respect and obey the laws of the United States of America, and to subscribe to the BSA statement of religious principle. Is at least 21 years of age and of good moral character. Should be interested in and enjoy working with boys and be able to work with adults. Should be an experienced leader, but may be a parent or guardian of a boy in the den. Recommended by the Cubmaster after consultation with the parents and guardians of the Tiger Cubs involved, and approved by the pack committee and chartered organization. Registered as an adult leader of BSA.

Responsibilities: The Tiger Cub den leader's responsibilities are to

- Give leadership in carrying out the pack program in the den.
- Take part in the annual pack program planning conference and pack leaders' meetings.
- Complete Tiger Cub den leader Fast Start Training and position-specific Basic Leader Training.
- Serve as den host or hostess for family members at the pack meetings.
- Stimulate the Tiger Cubs' imaginations on the program theme for the month, and work with the adult partners to prepare boys for participation in pack meetings.
- Help the Cubmaster (or assistant Cubmaster) and pack committee to recruit new boys.
- Coordinate shared leadership among the Tiger Cub adult partners in the den.
- Ensure that each Tiger Cub and his adult partner have the opportunity to be the host team, planning and executing the den activities, rotating responsibilities monthly.
- Promote the religious emblems program, as available to Tiger Cubs.
- Use Boys' Life and Scouting magazines, Cub Scout Program Helps, the Tiger Cub Handbook, and other Cub Scouting literature as sources for program ideas.
- Maintain a friendly relationship with the Tiger Cubs and their adult partners.
- Make pack and den resources available to the host team, ensuring the completion of the den component of the Tiger Cub advancement requirements.
- Encourage Tiger Cubs to earn advancement awards. Keep accurate advancement records and see that the boys receive recognition for their achievements.
- Help the den and pack earn the Summertime Pack Award.
- Lead the den in its participation at pack meetings.
- Work in harmony with other den and pack leaders.
- Help set a good example for the boys through behavior, attitude, and proper uniforming.
- Support the policies of the BSA.
